Helping Children Live with HIV is the third title in Hesperian's Early Assistance Series for Children with Disabilities.

Hesperian encourages you to copy, reproduce, or adapt any or all parts of this book, including the illustrations, provided that you do this for non-commercial purposes, credit Hesperian, and follow the other requirements of Hesperian's Open Copyright License (see www.hesperian.org/about/open-copyright).

For certain kinds of adaptation and distribution, we ask that you first obtain permission from Hesperian. Contact permissions@hesperian.org to use any part of this book for commercial purposes; in quantities more than 100 print copies; in any digital format; or with an organizational budget more than US $1 million.

We also ask that you contact Hesperian for permission before beginning any translation, to avoid duplication of efforts, and for suggestions about adapting the information in this book. Please send Hesperian a copy of any materials in which text or illustrations from this book have been used.

Helping Children Live with HIV can be improved with your help. If you are a health worker, community organizer, teacher, social worker, or anyone with ideas or suggestions for ways this resource can be changed to better meet the needs of your community, please write to hesperian@hesperian.org. Thank you for your help.

This book was printed on recycled paper in Canada by Friesens, an employee-owned corporation.

These valued advisers provided essential early guidance or ongoing support:

Elaine Abrams at ICAP; Christo Greyling and Stuart Kean at World Vision; Noreen Huni at REPSSI, whose certificate program for community home-based care providers inspired us immensely; Ronnie Lovich, at Save the Children; Pascal Mailu and Natasha Martin of G.R.A.C.E. in Kenya; Wairimu Mungai of WEMIHS in Kenya; Christian Pitter, at EGPAF; Feliciano dos Santos at Estamos in Mozambique; and Zanele Sibanda, at Firelight Foundation.

Special recognition goes to: Jonathan Mermin (in the US and Uganda) and Reuben Granich for early support of our efforts to understand the impact of HIV on children and families, and to Deborah Bickel who drafted material – including the story of Gideon and his sisters in Chapter 2 – for an earlier, unpublished project.

Advisers and reviewers

Our materials depend greatly on the thoughtful contributions of dozens of individuals, who provide help of all kinds. We cannot thank them enough.
