

WHERE TO GET MORE INFORMATION

Here we include organizations that offer information and teaching materials. Some send these free or offer them free online while others charge some money for them. Contact the organizations directly for more information.

If you are looking for Hesperian materials, such as Where There Is No Doctor in a specific language, visit the Hesperian Language Hub (languages.hesperian.org). There you can view all available resources in a language, read them for free online, and learn more about how to get print copies.
